

If you feel stuck and not sure how to proceed into recovery with the tools on our network, or if you're in the GYE 12 step phone conferences or live groups and would like to deepen and accelerate your recovery, a GYE coach could be the perfect solution for you. We also offer specialized coaching for wives of strugglers/addicts and for men suffering from Same Sex Attraction (SSA).

Our team of coaches have all been “there” and have become experts in helping people like you get to where you want to be. They will help you implement and internalize the tools and approaches that helped thousands of others. We highly recommend them.
