

just starting - going 1 day at a time

I figure this founmn will be the better place to post

I hope you will be able to help me with a daily or twice daily (or more) boosts or upgrades to my fight. I find that having an online discussion dealing with my problem helps me cope with my addiction.

I'm on day 3 from joining the website. I started counting from then.

Thank you all.

welcome aboard! You made a great move! The guys here are great! Someone is always around to give you a boost. I just joined less than a month ago, and I would not have been able to stay clean if not for the support that i got here. Post as much as you can, and as I was told the more you express the difficulty you have the more specific help evryone else can give you. Its a bit uncomfortable in the beginning but as you read the other posts you see that there is nothing to be embarassed about, we've all "been there done that" and we are working toward the same goal. Hatzlacha Rabba!

.... but if you don't yet feel comfortable with sharing any details. Don't worry about it.

There is a lot of help available even without that.

Just stick around & read. read. read.

Look for someone who seems to be in your 'style' & keep following him around.

May Hashem help you & lead you in the right path!

after reading your other thread, I see that we have a lot in common. For me also, stress is a major cause for M, that quick fix. I would tell you to see my thread on stress management, but 90% is hijacked. (No hard feelings, guys)

I found that stress is the YH's way of getting us to feel overwhelmed and distanced from HKBH. I've been focusing on retaining the kirvas Elokim in whatever way I can. Learning, tehillim etc... But the bottom line is that I couldnt do it without posting here each step of the way, and getting the support from the chevra. Keep it up! HKBH loves you ~~no matter how many times you fall~~ b'davka because youve fallen. He wants to be close to you. Thats why its so hard. the YH knows how special your connection to Hashem is. Dont let him get in the way. Its yours grab hold of HKBH and dont let go!

the views expressed in this post are mine and not indicative that this is the only way to go. Just what worked for me. Take it or leave it

Thanks for the good word. One of my problems is that my yetzer hara can convince me to masturbate. the reason being that over my lon trek in the dirt I have mastered masturbation without shichvas zera (most of the time). I then dont see the wrong in masturbation as long as if im destressing myself without looking on porn and keeping evil thoughts away.
