hi all -

this thread will be the for posting about Dov (in Israel) Tue class, as well as for any other zany thoughts anyone feels like sharing.

having trouble relating to the term: ADDICT...

maybe you feel the Chats are not soooo terrible...

Tomorrow - Tues, April 5

SPECIAL CLASS: STOP THE BUZZING!

some background:

we are taking a slightly different look at the 12-steps.

The story begins with the main character, Eli - one night while sitting at his computer, he decided to Go-ogle...he slipped,and in the moments of confusion which followed an INVISIBLE MUD WASP flew into his head.

The Wasps constant buzzing made Eli even more irritated.

He found, the quiet, and solitude connected with being on the computer gave him some peace and quiet (so he thought)...but unfortunately for Eli, while he was distracted by the images on his computer, more and more Wasps began to enter his head...until the BUZZING was nearly unbearable.

Sound familiar?

Come join us tomorrow -

We are holding at the 4th step...but in the mean time, while we are anchored, come learn:

newly discovered techniques to help get RID of the WASPS - and get RID of their BUZZING!

2:30 est (11:30 pacific, NOTE: 9:30 Israel time - summer clocks)

PS. Does the idea of a Wasp in your head sounds ridiculous...it is no more ridiculous than the addiction we are dealing with. Think about how many ridiculous things this addiction has lead you to do.
