

Looking back and ahead

I am back on the forum, as maybe some people realize, and my reasons for that can be found in the introduce yourself umbrella topic. I no longer have major problems with SSA, but it hangs around and I feel it threatening to me. I realize I have been gone a long time, and am formally asking that the SSA thread be revived under this one that I'm starting now. I particularly want to hear very much from "britt" (although I get the feeling some may feel he is a neusence (sp) and also I would ilike to drag "ish---" something out of the woodwork. I see that this topic affects you very much and I would like to offer my help and advice through my experiences thus far. Thank you.
