I can read 90,000 (54) reasons not to, and I will still have the urge. Does that make any sense?

Makes sense. But is that a reason not to act out?

#55a: Acting out has brought me down so far, that even after reading 54 reasons not to, I have no controll.

#55b: There are 53 reasons why I shouldn't be doing this, and it is so self destructive, that I still have an urge to act out.

#55c: This diseas will make me suffer 54 things, and I still have the urge to feed it! For that alone I need to get healthy, and live sober.

#55d: I will swiftly bring upon myself 90,000 consiquences by acting out, ??? ??? I still wana act-out. Stupid no?

You can't "reason" with the Y"H. If reasons worked, we wouldn't all be here.
