

I need help in Chicago

Hi I am shouting out to the world that I need help. I have been going on this site for a month now. What a long month? Haven't been on the bad sites in a month so proud of myself. But that isn't good enough I need to fix the root of the problem. And I have tried the call in 12 step program, but I have hearing trouble, and couldn't hear anything. I need to find a kosher way to do 12 step either one on one in person, or one on one over the phone. If anyone could help that would be awesome. Have a good shabbos everyone.

well, first get started with it on your own, until you find someone to do it with.

Also, I assume you mean "kosher" as oppose to 12 steps with non-jews, right?

In MHO, if the 12 steps will help you be shomer bris and you cannot find an ideal way of learning it, you should do it in the non ideal setting; It's just too important to be picky about
