What are my options?

Is falling an option?

Is it really?

What will be the results of that choice? Short-term & long-term?

What are my other options?

Which do I rather want?

Can I hold out just for today?

Can I wait another 10 minutes??

Can I Call/text/chat/PM a GYE Buddy?

hey brother

nothing can stop you, only you can stop yourself

why not carry on down the drain, if you wona go down that route, then what are you doing here?

if you posted that note, it shows, that in reality your nehsomo is screaming to you, "please stop it - its killing me"

so if you want to help yourself, then do the 12 steps and STOP THAT FILTH FOR HEAVEN SAKE

just one day, only for the rest of today

Thanks Jack.

My Dear Emuna17,

Filters are important, but they get too much of the spotlight here sometimes.

Recovery is where it's at. Get well using proven addiction recovery methods and you'll be your own filter 8)

Stay away from your cousin's house. At least stay out of the room where the computer is. Your sanity depends on it!

Having said that, is this the only challenge? This disease tends to permeate its victims lives even when they're not at their cousins' houses. A trip to the cousin's may just be the result of a day of lusting.

Forgive me if I'm coming on strong. I've been 17 and my head was swimming in lust by then. It took me another 25+ years to realize I had a problem. Ashrecha if you're ready to get out of the shmutz now.

Alex
