Hi everyone hope all is well. I started going back to school staying busy. Unfortunately I had to read from my text book with pictures of almost totally undressed women. I told my teacher I can't do this assignment. He laughed at me I felt really hurt. My wife previewed all my text books and she folded over these pages for me. I am so happy she helped me with that.

you will have the last laugh

good for you for taking the high road and not the easy-lazy path!
