

I'm about to FALL!!

Posted by jerusalemsexaddict - 13 Aug 2009 21:26

Allright so as everyone here knows,we on the site often here desperate "call-outs" from people who feel that they are about to fall any minute.Sometimes the emergency units don't have enough time to respond to put out the fire,or are simply unaware of the emergency.

In any case,I am declaring this guardyoueyes's official 911 switchboard.

If there's an emergency of any sort,even a chashash,post here IMMEDIATELY!And well come to your rescue as soon as possible,iy'h.

You can post your emergency here,or give us a link to your thread where you can speak about your emergency.And our volunteers will respond as soon as possible to your calls.

As some people might feel uncomfortable reading women's struggles,I am putting one in the women's section,and whoever feels safe creeping over to the other side of the mechitzah is welcome to go in thereand help.

Wishing everyone the best-Uri

I do not think I'm an addict...

but some people probably think otherwise.

I have a thread going for 90-days....where I open up a lot about myself.

Hi Chaimel (I love that username)

Have you ever thought about starting your own thread and writing a little about what you are going thorough? It is a great way to begin to meet people and learn from their experiences.

(and I definitely agree about thanking Hashem for iphones filters (even though I have an android))

Thanks a lot for the response! The thought to start a thread crossed my mind many times cuz that would be a great log to post my struggles and be able to learn about the journey from my own past, but I don't really feel up to it, that's only for now I may come around sooner or later.

I had an android for years, I switched in the summer mainly because the iPhones filter is much better, for me it was a game changer! That's what I was hinting at by saying "the willpower to put it in place."

Yes, but this thread is supposed to be for people who feel like they're about to fall. There's no responsibility to post just because you have a thread. It just categorizes it for the rest of the group.

Hatzlacha.

I'm scared of falling.

Think of sobriety time as money in the bank.

Every clean day you get another silver dollar.

We are investing in ourselves and our futures and our sanity - so really there is no value you can put on it.

But here's what happens.

The more money you have deposited in the bank, the more invested you become in yourself and not wanting to let yourself down.

And then if you do fall, you remember what it was like to have all those silver dollars in the bank... and you want them and so many more of them.

Being scared of falling is natural when you look at it like this.

But be practical also, and focus on the gains you are making..
