

can someone do me a favor?

Posted by 5770 - 26 Dec 2011 21:59

I need someone who's been on the forums a while to kindly volunteer to receive a weekly status email from me ,... or send me a harassing weekly email if I go off the radar? (I will PM someone who wants to do this my personal email addr). I think a weekly thing would help ... just to check in with me ... make sure i'm clean, etc. Routinely.... no excuses for me :-) SORry I've not read the forum rules lately (or at all! - just kidding of course :-)) so i don't know if this is allowed or not, but if anyone doesn't mind helping out I'd appreciate it. Just asking! If not possible, no problem. Just think this might help me right now.

Wlshing you a freilichen Chanuka and a Gut chodesh!
