

Hashem blessing those who try?

Posted by newstart - 28 Dec 2011 18:39

Day 6 and going strong, although not been easy..... i dont want to make this change for reward on its own, but as an aside, I did for the first time ever win over $130(equivalent) today on a lottery ticket.... which i rarely ever buy...so maybe i can take a message that hashem will bless me in all things good if i at least try...might work for me as motivation ,might not work for others...but cant hurt to think positively that the reward in life is according to the effort
