I am not expecting a setback - but the cleaning woman is here again cleaning up after Purim - Aggh the thoughts and fantasies. I have been pushing them out by saying my Prayers and envoking Hashem to take the foremost place in my mind - I cannot be alone with her. OH and my wife is sick - so i will prepare the meal after the woman leaves - i will go away for a while and hit some golf balls or something along those lines - just had to get all that into the light of day.
