see subject line. does anyone feel like they need a real person to talk to sometimes? i mean, i can always talk to my therapist but for some reason always "forget" to mention this to her. she doesnt even know i was very and still am addicted a little bit. so right now im looking for a little support.. feel free to join me in the public chat (seichel) and i will also be watching this topic for the rest of the night, or until i feel better. thanks....
