

a quick smile

Posted by strugglingandstrivngBT - 30 Nov 2012 05:45

I was just trying to watch a video of a heliger singer (Simcha Leiner), a 110% kosher video, just stam. I like the music. I click the link and BAM: website category block-streaming video/audio. I smiled, knowing that I am at least that safe. ein hochi nomi, no filter is perfect, but I am doing what I can. just wanted to share.

Great post. My filter settings also block 110% kosher stuff, which is GOOD for me. How many time did i start with something 110% kosher and end up with the opposite, Rt'L?

Hatzlacha in all things GOOD!

amen! I'll be honest, it does get annoying sometimes, but lmaisa it's so much better than the alternative. I think I'd be better with it if it also blocked everything that was 120% treif... but that's probably "haderech adom rotzei l'lech ba molichin oso."
