Bout the titanic bashing, I understand it has a bit nudity...etc. But that is not the point of it. I think it's an amazing story of true love and real caring in a world gone crazy.

i was wondering how to respond to tryings post and you put ut beautifully.

our society makes all these "love" stories as if theyre beautiful.it doesnt matter if its eshes ish,incest,homosexual,or just stam.lust with some zonah.
Wow! My respect for you has just risen several notches we unfortunately are brainwashed beyond belief just cause there is some nice music going on.

if a boats going down you try to help save people,you dont have sex.

what a pathetic story.

and the same goes for the "notebook"and all that trash that people say is so nice.that was adultery.she was engaged.

thank you maalin for stating the truth so well.

we live in a real world and we really care. rose and jack are fiction. and the rules in their game are not the rules in our game. lets keep that straight. but if were learning from holywood about true love, what about fiddler on the roof. know the song, "do i love you?" so, what is true love? hmmm... lets ask holywood... c'mon! youre better than that! we're better than that! (and i did grow up watching many many movies and i do struggle with this)

how about a diff story of true love...

some guy grew up in a home as a twin and his father seemed to favor his brother. his brother also had it in for him, so his mom stepped in and sent him away and his father seemed to be behind the decision even though unclear what his initial intentions were. he runs off to his cousin's and at the well of the town sees a lot of shepherds and a stone on the well. suddenly he sees a beautiful woman approaching and gathers the strength to lift the stone from the well and well, he loved her, and the story goes on from there... (and there are more where that came from!, and even then it's unclear what love is and when it's good or bad) we don't need leo and kate to display these things for us. i give you a bracha that you should really experience it in your life and find love in your own special way.

maalin,

continuing on the movie theme.

.. dark night is a pretty solid film, but again, it's a film, a lot of music and effects to impress all of us good for you for getting rid of the tv. and do what you gotta do man. if the couch has got to go... keep it up maalin!

gut voch!

I know that we shouldn't learn love from them, but don't distort the facts. The point wasn't about the sex. and they weren't having it while it was sinking. When it was sinking they were risking their lives for each other displaying the ultimate love.
