I can't go to Uman so Uman will come to me.

next post is from LeKutei Maharan and I plan on learning one of Reb Nachman's Torahs (that he said on Rosh Hashana) -on Rosh Hashana

Guards last shmiras eynayim email, with the vort that the YH is like a man with clenched hand and everyone is running after him, thinking that his hand has treasure... but each treasure is different... they imagine it to have whatever they are lacking... is brilliant.

We each have things we need inside. The need is real. But there are always two pathways in this world to reach that need.

the easy but fake one.

the hard but real one.

The YH of avoda zora was Just that! a way to connect to the divine (which was a big need for humans, before the anshai kneses hagdola removed it), but without the self sacrifice needed in perfecting ones character.

dunno. Let me check.. hmm left my yarmulka with the name at home drivers license...

no, its not me.

Someone else, apparently.

Is he nice?
