Been there, done that. Never worked for me. I took it down or covered it up. Then put it back when I was done.

It may help, but is far from a solution.

Ask Reb B. he was in my office.

I have this Beautiful Gold Plated Menora with Lamnatzeiach & Shivisi Hashem L'Negdi Tumid Carved into it that I bought in Geula at Matanel 2000 (Beautiful stuff they have, I wanted to buy the whole store) for this reason stting right next to my 34" screen that I need for the work I do.

I also have a Pictureofmy Heiliger Local Rov as well as Rav Wosner & The Tolneh Rebbe (I love the Tolneh Rebbe, listen to all his shiurim on Kol Haloshoin) looking right at me.

And Nothing! when the Y'H showed up I just turned it to the wall.

So good luck but it didn't work for me.

I have a letter written in my rebbetzin's handwriting taped to my screen.

very rarely helps. but for the 2-3 times that it did help, it's worth it for it to be there

I took all such pictures down from the walls of my room. This won't stop an addict. He'll just feel worse about it after.
