

GYE SIYUM MISHNAYOS - please join! (Glauber)

In case you didn't know,

there was a terrible tragedy in Williamsburg on Motzi Shabbos, a 21 year old couple (Heimishe) were going by cab to the hospital to deliver their first child,

Their cab was hit by a hit and run driver and both were niftar.

The doctors were able to perform an emergency c-section to save the child, but the child was niftar today as well.

I find this story so sad for words, and I feel personally responsible (a bit) you know, maybe if I hadn't been such a shck Hashem wouldn't have had to send this wake up call.

Anyways, I feel a big hisorerus to do something lilui nishmasam, (not something big, because it probably won't happen, but some thing small and meaningful and maybe we can use this as an opportunity for growth...

I don't have any concrete plans yet but I'd like to hear if anybody else had a good idea, and we could make maybe a kind of a group kabola (maybe even only for a short period of time)

Also if anybody knows there full names (ie avraham ben moshe) could you post it here

p.s. even the goyim in my office heard of this story (and we live about 500 miles away from ny.)

Lag Ba'omer sounds good to me. Maybe we plan a siyum outing (bonfire?), to attract more participants.

MT

GYE bonfire in Meron (where else?) See you there!

We'll toss all the shirkers and iPhones into the bonfire!

Dear Inna,

Enjoy your masechta

It mamash burns hot like sreifa

you can get choked up with the kedusha

Even the Stoners and Stoneheads can relate,

But make sure you finish on time or I'll have yer Head...

Dear TZ

Boo hoo hooo

I'm sorry

And spit out those grapeskins you nazirite you!

I just started Kailim, I will be happy to do it for the siyum, but there is no way I will be done by Lag B'Omer, (2 weeks) but I will try.

I had better get off the computer and get started.
