since ive joined GYE my average has been about two weeks and then.... BAM! im trying to break that record and being as im feeling particularly narcissistic today and i get tremendous chizzuk from the comradarie here im gonna ask for a cheering squad to root for me. feel free to join. if i can offer any encouragement to fellow stugglers who want me and anyone else who joins the aforementioned squad (please don't leave me here by myself!) that would be awesome.

as of today i have four days thanks for sharing your story. i smell a success story in the making and you play the starring role.

) and it can be agonizing. there is a phrase around here "stinkin' thinkin'", we can get all wound up like a spring with our thoughts and cheshbonos until we are ready to burst...

wishing you much hatzlocha

I think too much

Yeah, the less I think, the less trouble I get myself into.
