

the void

Posted by nitzotzeloki - 07 Apr 2013 18:34

unfortunately im dealing with some very severe depression which started recently (it usually happens this time of year) i feel like a complete piece of * and davening and learning is really difficult for me. i want to connect to Hashem but the only g-d i know when im in this state is the g-d of fantasy and temporary pleasure. ive been white knuckling it so far but as dov says 'how long can you hold youre breathe?' i feel totally self involved, stuck in my own head which is the worst place for me to be. ive been reaching out to get some off internet help and im holding on the best i can. i feel this empty space inside and i dont know whats even supposed to go there. im not good at saying what i actually feel, always thinking that i 'have' to be okay. well right now im not okay.

still in NY. hope to go back home soon. have been struggling with accepting life on G-ds terms with the result being occasional falls. B"H i havent been staying down. i was at a meeting today and the thought went through my mind how much worse off i could be and how much worse off ive been in the past. my ego has been taking hits from my not staying clean but i dont feel that im being complacent. could i be doing better? yes could i be doing worse? yes but guess what? all i have is exactly how im doing! when i start my day with an inventory at night and giving myself over to Hashem in the morning everything works out. when i dont give my day over to Hashem.... Hashem lets me try and run my life with the inevitable result that i run back to Him.

Mazel Tov! I don't know what she looks like (and it's none of my business), but based on your own picture, you probably got the better part of the deal.
