

Harry's Wife

Yea,we all know her.

Sitting on the bus near you.

The guy next door's wife.

Your best friend's wife.

Bekitzur,everyone's wife but yours.

Hashem commands us:

Do not desire her!

Um,sorry?

I'd understand if You would tell me

"Don't have sex with her!"

But not to lust?

How can we be commanded something that is seemingly out of our control mostly?!

So I ask you the following:

Would you like to buy a nice porsche and drive cross-country?

Yea?

Nice.

Would you like to buy a nice spaceship and circle the moon a few times?

No?

Why not?

I'm sure it would be fun.

The answer is no.

Because it's not shayach.

It's not happening.

It's out of our reach.

The first bracha under the chupa is:

"Who forbade us the betrothed, and permitted the married (the one that you're married to)."

Why?

Because first we must understand that any other women are not shayach.

We must get that into our heads.

It is not happening.

It's like that spaceship.

This is the yesod of the Ibn Ezra.

When I spoke to my sex addiction therapist about this, he pointed out the following:

Think about any wife who would think of cheating on her husband.

Think of how difficult their relationship must be.

And you would go in there and destroy a family even more?

We do not want to enter this sugya, chevra.

Even "just looking"

Any wife who dresses provocatively we must feel bad for.

She's obviously not being shown enough love at home.

We must daven for them.

Not watch them as they walk.

See the other side of the story chevra.

Even pornstars.

What brought them to this place.

Oy!

I feel like crying :'(

Karma is a rare yiddish delicacy so it is only proper to talk about it in Yiddish. By the way how does karma help? Mediation helps, but karma is a concept not an activity.

On the topic. We only have an interest in looking because it stimulates us. We don't care how that happens. we look at website or every cartoon figures and maybe even memories can stimulate us. I think that Rabbi B is right. All we want is the rush. We so don't care about anyone All we care about is what she can give us or what we can take from her.

Mr.B is right. We don't really want anything from anyone else. The bottom line is, that all the pleasure that happens during relations really goes on in our own minds and bodies. The climax is the exact same pleasure, whether you are with or without someone else. The whole "other person" thing was created only so that we should reproduce, but it really has nothing to do with the other person at all. It's all a master "trick" of the Creator, so that we pro-create.

If we can see lust for what it really is, we will understand that we actually have no interest at all in anyone but ourselves.
