Fallin in a rut

feelling like a nut

Screamin "GET ME ATA HERE"

But no one seems to care

Wana get on with life feels like you cant

wana scream and shout yell and rant

some times we must realize the answers in our hands instead of asking others

ask yourself

Is this the life that i want do i really wana rip my self apart to run after this foollishness and fantasy

so lets sart living life the way its meany to be and wtih that well be much happier ohh youll see...
