

A Great Shiur on Acceptance

Hi folks!

I haven't been on here for a while, but b"h things are going well for me.

I really feel that over the chagim hashem has helped me to reconnect to him. Hopefully it will continue and get better.

I heard this shiur by chance/hashgacha and I thought that maybe some other people here could benefit from it as well.

I haven't heard the follow up yet but I'll post it if it's shayach.

Hope this helps!

Seems like it's really one long shiur.

Here's part two.

Enjoy!

I hope that someone is gaining from thees shiurim.

I really found part three to be a MIND BLOWER!

Really worth it to follow through till the end.

That's my take on it anyway.

Njoy!

I listened to the first two, they are really goooooood!!!

and they are not too long (30 min each), Rav Sher has an awesome accent, and the material is down to earth, practical, and given over with humor.

Shkoyach guy, keep them coming!!

Thanks Guy for the brilliant shurim. I love his South African accent, he reminds me of Rabbi

What I understand is that he is in middle of this subject and every week he is giving a shiur on the next step. If so then please keep us posted with the upcoming shiurim.

Sorry JJ,

That was a series of 3 shiurim.

I'm not sure when they were given exactly.

Rav sher is the Rosh Yeshiva of Ohr Avraham.

He has many inspirational shiurim on Hashkafa, Emuna and Bitachon, a lot of them ( I feel ) touch on our daily struggle.

I just posted those three 'cause I felt that they dealt directly with acceptance and letting hashem in to our lives.

I'm putting up the Ohr Avraham link here and you can browse through the audio shiurim.

They have a TON of great stuff.

Help yourself and ENJOY!!!
