I DID IT!!!! I reached 90 days!!!

From now on this will be my main thread where I post news and ask for advice. My old threads have irrelevant names now, and one of them was moved to BB.

I feel amazing! Time to do another 90 days!

Clean since my last msg. Done some positive changes in my life. Feels so wonderful that I dont have any secrets.. I am finishing my BA this year and have just started to run. I plan to run a half marathon in 2016. And I also have an idea for a book I want to write. Feels so great to focus my energy on these goals where my wife gives me 100% support!
