

GYE - Life Saver

Posted by Tazdik - 27 Dec 2013 02:38

Hi all,

As this is my first post on this website, I will start Bechvod Huachsanya.

GYE is a site who must exist. ITs like the Urei Miklat. Whenever you want Chizuk this is the place to go. We all know the story with King David when G-d told him that everything he created on this world is for the good of the people. The Internet was created by G-d. We can sometimes all ask, whats the good of it? It comes with so much Nisyonos and time wasting. "GUARD YOUR EYES" is the answer to that question.

My story in very short.

I am an addict and BH getting/being well one day at a time.

My story with a little more details.

I am an addict since the day I figured out there such a thing as Moitzie Zera. My body found out of it and took this as its alternative to every problem coming its way. I was always thinking I am so good at dealing with problems, I am such an easy going person. In fact, I was, but it was replaced with something very sick and not a professional way of handling problems.

Of course, after each fall I was promising my self and G-d that it was the very last time it happened. I installed filters and spent hours to crack them. I cried in bad at night from bitterness looking at my situation. I was sometimes afraid to walk on the street at night being convinced that G-d will take care now of me once and for all and put an end to all this on his terms.

The double life was eating me alive but only from the inside. I couldn't find myself admitting it to anyone. As much as I wanted to get help and come out of my sickness once and for all to someone I can trust, I always refused to do it. I was scared I cant trust him, My spouse will find out. I went for help for other things where the consular wasn't successful at his job for the one and only reason. HE WAS NOT AWARE OF MY HIDDEN SICKNESS/ADDICTION which is the one and only reason to all the problems.

Finally, A few month ago, I mistakenly got this great website. I downloaded the handbook and read it in 2 days. I couldn't get enough of it. I felt I found what I was always been searching for. It got me sober for a week or so, until my first fall and another 2 falls. I gave up. A month later I got back on track. This time I took a sponsor but than Sukkos came and I lost contact with him for a week which of course let to another fell.

My addiction told me at that point that this whole recovery thing is not made for you. You are too smart to act so Babyish.

24 days ago! I started again with a power and will that came to me straight from above which I couldn't refuse it. I felt like G-d himself came down to me Lematah Me'asarah Tefachim and told me "Son, come back home to me, Just admit that you cant, pray to me everyday, and I promise I will help you one day at a time." I accepted the invitation and started again.

However, this time I did certain things differently.

I installed a filter that I would not be able to break as much as I would try.

I stopped completely watching movies.

I will NEVER be alone in my office or at any other place with FILTERED Internet.

I will say the Yom Tehilim.

I will Daven to Hashem every day with Kavana.

I will read EVERY DAY the Chizuk emails or a part of the handbook.

I will be talk to Hashem whenever I need something.

I will thank Hashem for everything he gives and does for me.

I will walk on the streets with my eyes to the floor.

BH so far its going very good one day at a time.

I will end with a Tefilah to hashem. I should be able to stay sober for the rest of my life one day at a time and be able to help others stay sober.

P.S. I am looking for a sponsor/partner to talk on daily bases on the phone.

Good morning Chaveirim.

I feel very down. I had a fall today after 29 days sober. I tried to be Mechazek myself but no luck yet.

I need gallons of Chizuk to start all over again. I don't know where to turn. A wish I can move back the clock with 2 hours. I feel the world turned on me upsidedown

You heard them, Fell Shmell!!!

You say you need chizzuk.....I found that the only chizzuk that really helped me feel better, was doing something about it, something more than I had done before.

What will it be? What will be different next time?

Good morning Chaveirim.

Thanks for the Chizuk. I did lock completely the internet on my phone. It was open but with a filter which I was unfortunately able to override.

I do feel important to write the thought that helped me get quickly back on track and not get down.

Hashem wants us to be sober every single day but one day at a time. Every time I walk on the street with my eyes to the floor, Every time I sit by the red light and I dont look around, Every time I had a Nisoyan and I hold back my self I did a great kiddush Hashem. Hashem was very happy with every single time I was strong. When I fall, of course Hashem is not happy, of course He wanted me to be strong that time as well. Unfortunately, I was not. I do have to start my 90 days from scratch, but it doesn't necessarily mean the past 29 days ended up in the trash bag. The 90 days is for my benefit that this Nisayon should be easier. Its just a pity for "me" that I have to start again 90 days, but the big picture is still that I was strong 200= times Vs 1 time that I wasn't. "I" am loosing my "90 days count" but I am not loosing my "Zechusim of being strong for 29 days". Therefore, I am not depressed nor down. I will move on and b"h be successful this time with the 90 days count.

Good day for all and stay sober for today.

Back to work...
