Which do wives care more about? Finding out that their husband masturbates or that he watches porn??

(Obviously I know that porn also (usually) includes M-bation but I'm asking which part bothers the wife more)

first of all it depends on the wife, second of all what difference does it make for us?

I totally agree with dd, but just a side point, the porn and masturbation are both just outcomes, and truthfully, I don't think that asking which a wife cares about more is fair, because how about if I ask you which you prefer, your arm or your leg? Is there an answer for that? I think not...
