Posted by chizukmachine - 13 Mar 2015 00:10

Hi All. Not able to hit ninety days: way too high. I want to start with thirty as of tomorrow. Anyone want to start with me? We can post along the way: every day. Let me know if your in!!!

Would be helpful to me to have a partner or two that are struggling as well and would want to hit a holy thirty!!

Welcome!

I'm in, but let us take it one day at a time, with 30 days as an incentive to help us along.

So: i agree we should take it one day at a time: but there has to be some king of overarching goal no? some day's i'm not confronted with the nisayon: and some days yes: so on days were I am: having an overarching goal should be helpful: don't think we're disagreeing, i guess it's just a matter of where the focus should be: on the one or on the thirty. Each day I'm successful is a great day. Thirty successful day's is off the charts: no pun intended. So today's day one . . . let's make it a great one!

the overarchin' goal is life.

Focus on the white lines before you; not those that are beyond the bend.

Nc, think your chizuk needs can be somewhat alleviated if we hook you up to the chizuk machine?

Thank you ineedchizuk!! so do we all!! today is day two. What's crazy about the internet is that there are so many triggers: even if going on a seemingly innocent website: a slight picture can be a trigger: kind of like walking in the street and seeing a woman inadvertantly: it's kind of not fair: but today's day two: an easier day since it's shabbos: but one day at a time: so let's go!!
