Hey what's up everybody? Hope everyone is doing well. Just wondering what the "boys" think about this issue. Most of us here r somewhat addicted to schmutz in one way or another. Now as breaking free from any addiction (alcohol drugs) causes withdrawal symptoms, So too in regards to lust addiction. I was thinking that if we can post some of the expected symptoms and of course the unexpected, it can be a tremendous inspiration to others.

What I'm saying is not just any philosophy. It's a way founded by the Besh"t. Many problems with addicts is that they don't believe that they can prevail. They don't believe that Hashem wants them to have this test and win over. Otherwise, why is he causing this big mess with our lives?

"...veshochanti besoch bnei Yisrael"

Hashem wanted us to make him a place down here in this world. There's is no ME. It's all about Hashem. How am I going to make Him a place down here in this world, this lowly world.

I don't know. This is what really gave me the push to make it to 24 days. And counting.
