

the story i never told

Posted by Prisoner7785 - 27 May 2015 20:26

hi everyone, this is my first day as a member of gye. hopefully tom i will be sober, today i wasn't. im 30 years old, married with 2 beautiful kids and have a loving wife. i have been struggling with sexual related things such as masturbation, porn, voyeurism, going to massage parlors as well as having crazy fetishes. my marriage is rocky but repairable (i hope).. my wife has no clue about the things i do nor does anyone.. I'm so tired of this secret life i live.. I'm constantly running home to make sure that i erased my history and put away any cameras as not to have my wife find out. i need to be free of this but,i have little hope. i currently don't have a job and have lots of free time and have been up to no good! thanks for listening.
