Truck Towing - #11 Ideas
Posted by markz - 15 Oct 2015 01:03

Ideas

1. It's best to share what has worked for us in our own experiences rather than trying to think up good advice for the person we are chatting with. We are not here to play therapist/rabbi, we are here as people who could relate to each other because we've been through similar situations. Sometimes just being understanding, even if we don't have all the answers, is helpful. Cordnoy wrote "Know (or try to know) who you are talkin' to, and talk from experience and how it was productive, or how it wasn't". If you don't have experience e.g. what to say to a teen, take a back seat, relax, someone will be in shortly with right thing to say

Please forgive my bluntness, but HERE's an example of many foolish pieces of advice
