Hi, I am new to this site, and I just started out on my 90 day journey. It's been a four days already that I'm clean already B"H. However, I'm starting to feel like it's getting hard for me like I miss the excitement and the feeling. Can anyone give me ideas what to do about it. I would greatly appreciate it.

Thank you BenTorah.BaalHabayis for your Chizuk, when I learn during the day it makes me feel more meaning to my life than just work, and money. Torah is something that we can keep and will be bale to learn as much as we want to, and will not loose what we work for. Similiar to the idea that we do not lose the clean days we worked for.
