

DOES ANYONE WANT TO SPONSOR THIS AD?

Posted by the.guard - 10 Nov 2009 21:31

We got an offer to place an ad in the "American Jewish Spirit" magazine for a good price. The AJIS comes out 4 times a year and it is ONLY subscriber based. It has 100,000 readers!

Most of the readers are either frum, recent balai Teshuvah, or people who want to be Mitchazek and become more religious.

The normal price is $995 per issue, for a half page ad. We got an offer for half price = $500 (or $400 if we take it for a full year, which is 4 times).

The magazine goes to press this week, so we only have another 2 days to get in the ad.

You don't have to take the whole thing, you can take a part if you want... For example, if 5 guys give $100 each we're in business! :D

Anyone want the zechus of possibly hundreds of people's Teshuvah?

Way to long & to much details.

Hey, E.L, Kután and Uri, are you saying that you agree the flyer is too long and I should go with something like I wrote? Or are you saying that even what I wrote is too long? I'm confused. Common guys, don't be so "short" and "simple"! EXPLAIN what you mean and offer suggestions...

If you want it to be short and sweet, give me a good line that will really catch their attention!

That would defiantly have me check out the site just to try & figure out what the Gehenom your talking about.

But seriously this one below that you posted earlier i think is just fine.

Surfing?

Do it right!

www.guardyoureyes.org

This site will change your life!

free - anonymous - AMAZING!

and then one or two of the following testimonials:

Kutan writes:

When I first found GYE, WOW was I on a high. For 2 months I could not stop smiling around the house. My wife was concerned I was on drugs or seeing a psychiatrist and not telling her. Really. It's just the total Ahavas Yisroel and idealism here, and to boot, a solution to my nagging clinging Yetzer Hara who I've never been able to shake off for too long.

Shepsil writes:

B"H, you guys had the bravery to confront the issues head-on, called things what they are, and creating GYE and all the supporting networks. I applaud you. You are saving my life, along with all the others...

Yakov writes:

Thanks to you, my life is better. I can speak to my kids about yiddishkeit without feeling like a hypocrite. I can sing zemiros at the Shabbos table without feeling guilt. I can shake the Rabbi's hand without saying to myself - 'if he only knew'... Between you all the people on the forum who are rooting for me, I can pull through this struggle. I can't express in words how much I owe you.

"WornB" writes:

I clicked on that link to the forum -bless that day- and pretty soon I was crying. To see my holy, precious, beloved brothers and fellow warriors joining together to fight back effectively and give each other support and chizuk, is by far the best therapy and the best chizuk I could ever hope for.

Yakov_Schwartz writes:

I have been focusing a lot on the 12 steps and I have been feeling immense natural serenity. I have been super calm to all that I meet. I feel a pleasure to be with people and to help people. My wife cannot get over what a calm and upbeat mood I have been in.

You guys are great! I feel like crying for joy just thinking about how wonderful you guys are.
Thanks

Bardichev writes:

I found your website... It is the most wonderful thing that has happened to me in along time. I cried my eyes out reading all the machshavos tovos and sincere hirhurei teshuva. I cried for along time when I realized that most of what I thought I was going through was crazy and only happening to me, was in fact happening to so many others as well. I cried for the honest people who are trying to save their neshamos, their lives, their marriages, their NORMALCY. I cried to Hashem to please let me also become a baal teshuva and not just go back and forth and be caught in a vicious cycle. Shabbos "Hachodesh" was anew hischadshus for me. I felt like air was being filled into a deflated balloon. I cried so hard by Kabbolas Shabbos...

Besides keeping it short, the key to a successful ad is to 'connect' with the reader.

Listing all the ma'alos or features of the product connects to the viewer only indirectly

How he will feel when he uses the product connects with him directly.

That's why ads tend to emphasize the smiling people more than the product they are holding.

Guard, the gadol is supposed to answer last. (Sanhedrin...)

Otherwise, how can everyone else voice their opinion?
