Hello, I am sorry you are having a hard time. So your wife isn't available, is there something special you are looking forward to, such as a birthday, or an anniversary? If not, try asking HaShem to help you out. If you want to talk. either pm me or chat me. I hope this helps.

Hey,

She is very available. Didn't she help with the kids overnight? That is pretty available to me. Our wonderful and selfless wives do much more for us than we realize.
