

Mishpacha Magazine Lifelines Story about GYE

Posted by Kedusha - 03 Jun 2016 18:59

Breaking Update (June 7, 2016): A high quality PDF, provided by Mishpacha Magazine, has been substituted for the original scanned copies.

I still advise that, if you're printing a copy, do yourself a favor and don't print the first page - you'll save yourself a whole lot of toner.

It's great to see this printed in such a widely distributed Jewish publication.

May this shorten many Yidden's journeys!

IMHO one of the big lies many of us told ourselves is - I'm the only one that struggles with this specific lust addiction, I'll have to live with my secrets forever

The mentioned article portrays a powerful message, which may bring many more brothers out of hiding to join us here

I would like to see such articles more often, and in other venues too. Eg some censoring newspapers that may be concerned about mentioning 'chat room' (which in my mind can't be a problem, because someone like my self that doesn't know what it is, what's the problem? And someone that knows...), let them cut that word out...

Cuz if he doesn't know what it is, he might search for it.

That is why we have gedolim.

If he knows how to search he's probably in trouble already...

It would be great if Mishpacha would do a feature article about GYE, not just a story. They've already covered plenty of taboo subjects, most recently about drug abuse.

It would definatley get the word out even more and help people that don't realize that there are many people dealing with the same struggle as themselves

And it will get out the word for young innocent children as well.

It's shocking to see what they print today nebech.

It's ??? ????? ?????? big time, this is what children have to see a big heading "double life"?

I disagree. Today's kids are not innocent, especially those who are old enough to pay attention to the regular Mishpacha.
