

Hey not sure what to do

Posted by seichel - 17 Aug 2016 01:12

hey I'm back after deciding to ignore the emails for a while. I do have a sort of steady relationship now but I don't get to see my special friend all that often due to crazy work hours. I often find myself using visual aids to substitute them when I feel lonely. And I do like it but at the same time I know I should be with the other person but at the same time that persons not there! I'm very confused. I signed up to the site a long time ago when I was a very different person and sure of myself. Not so much anymore. Could anybody help kinda figure out what to do in my situation? Thanks!

No not wife. And the situation is being worked on. They want to quit job, she doesn't like it. It's too crazy hours for her. Once we can get her set up w something more steady I think half the problem is solved. I was seeking input what to do in the meantime

Seichel,

Let's try this slowly; we all want to understand and I'm not sure if you're shy or ashamed, or if you have a hard time articulating yourself.

So here's a few questions that I'd love you to answer if you can.

1) Who is this relationship with? Girlfriend, boyfriend, fiancé, spouse?

2) Are you having sexual relations with his person?

3) Is the porn to replace the sex (if there is any) or their presence?

Seichel,

To be honest I'm much more concerned about your partner which is not your wife, than your porn usage.

feel free to share. we are not here to judge just to help.

Just like how not to use p--- as a substitute for being w my boyfriend. He works crazy hours so it's hard to get time in w him
