Well, its a new year. Every year I know I personally say the same thing... i'm done with porn... well this time i mean it... so i'm making an accountability group on Wattsapp. A group where, it'll be less anonymous then this website but still technically be anonymous, just not as anonymous because we will be trading phone numbers (not last names though).

I cant do this on my own, i need a support group that i can reach out to always and this year i'm making one and taking action... what about you??

If your interested PM me and we can add you (yes we already started). Hatzlacha everyone! I hope you wanna stop as badly as i do!
