

Attraction with men

Posted by Lubavitcher yungerman - 25 Sep 2017 15:06

Good morning,

i have suffered with sexual attraction to men ever since I was 14 years old.

when I was 28 I actually had sex with a friend of mine.

I don't know what a person has to do on this site if he's so allergic to toevah (not that I agree with what he said, just a question l'sh*tusai)

I think many are confused by this post. Who is it directed at - The gye SSA community?

I was just wondering how a person that is so "Holly" (???) that he can't tolerate anything that is in his eyes toevah, how did he get to this site? To the best of my knowledge this site is all about people that are stuck with toevah & seeking to get rid of it.

I have what to say in response, but I'm still unclear who you're addressing

Are you asking an innocent question how someone with Ssa can come to gye?

If so, please elaborate - also does it bother you?

This man isn't exactly the most rational person. Trying to make sense of his actions is an effort in futility.

I bet this is not a Jew. I can't imagine a Jew talking like this.

(I don't know why, but he reminds me from Nazis & jihadists)

Igros Moshe (O.H. 4:115): The first thing you need to know is that homosexuality has the severe punishment of stoning and kares ... [deleted by the editor] ... The greatest advice to overcome this is to learn Torah in depth. This will save and guard you from all sins – even from the thoughts of sins as the Rambam states at the end of Hilchos Issurei Bi'ah: "Greater than all this, turn oneself and one's thoughts to words of Torah and expand one's mind in wisdom." So surely this will save you from the yetzer harah...

Regarding kessler990 - the person who has come back in ten different incarnations to shame, name-call, threaten, and otherwise badmouth those of our community who struggle with same-sex attraction (myself included) - I would like to state the following:

It is quite clear that he suffers from "projective identification." This is a phenomenon known to psychologists since Freud's times (in fact, one of the first defense mechanisms that Freud has discovered). It means that a person has something about himself that he hates so much, that to admit it (even to himself) would cause a psychic break-down. So his psyche protects itself by "projecting" this identification on others, where it is safe to confront it. Ironically, the classic example of projective identification that psychology books offer is someone with "homosexual attractions" who becomes a "warrior for sexual purity" and a gay-basher.

In the Torah vernacular, we say "kol hapoisel, b'mumoi poisel." So the Jews have known of this phenomenon for many years before Freud. Nevertheless, it is nice to have a researched backing for this assertion.

It is not the GYE way to shame anyone, and certainly not to call for fire and brimstone on anyone, let alone on those who come here for help. This individual intends to inflict pain on our members because he can not stand his own affliction. May G-d Almighty bless him with speedy recovery.

Igros Moshe(O.H. 4:115): The first thing you need to know is that homosexuality has the severe punishment of stoning and kares and it is also called disgusting by the Torah itself. It is one of the most debased sins and it even is prohibited for non-Jews. This knowledge is a strong bulwark against the yetzer harah. Secondly it is inexplicable that there should be a lust for it. That is because in the creation of man himself there is no natural lust for homosexuality... The desire for homosexual relations is against natural lust and even the wicked do not have a desire for it itself. Rather their entire desire for it is only because it is something prohibited and the yetzer harah seduces them to rebel against the will of G?d. This knowledge of what is the will of G?d is a powerful protection against the yetzer harah. You have already defeated the yetzer harah in that you believe in G?d and all the 13 principles of faith and the entire Torah. With this you can defeat the yetzer harah in this that it seduces you to rebel against G?d and to anger Him. There is an explicit verse in HaAzinu "That with abominations they provoke Him to anger" [Devarim 32:16] Rashi says an example is homosexuality which is a sin which causes G?d's anger. He also says this regarding magic which interferes with the Heavenly family as is stated in Sanhedrin (67b). Thus the explanation of this verse is that it causes you to deny the decrees of Heaven and to act to anger G?d – chas veshalom! The third thing is that homosexuality is an embarrassment even to the common man. Because the entire world – even the wicked - ridicule those who are homosexuals. Even in the eyes of the wicked who participate in these acts, he looks down on the one who did it with him and ridicules and insults him. This awareness will greatly strengthen you against the yetzer harah. ...Awareness of how debasing a sin is, is a good advice to strengthen oneself against the desire to do a sin which is disgusting and ridiculed such as this one. Because not only is it against the Torah which prohibits it with the most severe punishment, but it is also the greatest embarrassment to his whole family. The greatest advice to overcome this is to learn Torah in depth. This will save and guard you from all sins – even from the thoughts of sins as the Rambam states at the end of Hilchos Issurei Bi'ah: "Greater than all this, turn oneself and one's thoughts to words of Torah and expand one's mind in wisdom." So surely this will save you from the yetzer harah of this despised sin.

I was just telling a friend the same thing. Glad we're on board.
