

HELP/ A POEM/ DO YOU RELATE??

An addiction so sweet so strong

An addiction so "right" so "wrong"

"NO I dont like it I tell you I don't!

"But an addiction. I won't leave it.. I won't"

You guess its called wiring why i remain

You are puzzled why someone would like all of this pain

Well you see its all about self-denegration

Self hate, sabatoge and flagelation

Why do i so want to lose?

Why is it this the life i choose???

Women are superior -WINNERS! -I am their cute failure to take care of

A fantasy yes to beware of

Some day I will get out...Or perhaps I won't I fear

Some days just to disappear

G-d throw me a life net of this I demand

To your unloyal servant with fractured hands

To your unloyal servant with fractured hands

This message rings very true. Beautiful poem. Hopefully you've got the life net already. I think it should end on a higher note.

instead of "To your unloyal servant with fractured hands "

I know i can be free just give me a hand.

Im not a poet, but you can use some more JOY!!
