

mzl and the diet

Posted by mzl - 05 Nov 2018 01:14

I'm adding a thread to talk about my diet because I have noticed that when the diet is not going well I tend to get discouraged about other things too.

I'm hoping the diet eventually works and the thread becomes history, as they say.

Wierd last post your wrote on the forum (maybe you deleted it already...

You should try a different diet

It's called a ?????? ?????

Yesterday I was for Thanksgiving so I ended doing a lot of work to stick to the food plan. However I worked so hard that I tired myself out too early in the day and when I am tired I convince myself that eating will make it better. I also wanted to use with my wife but she told me to get lost. I was lying in bed and instead of waiting to fall asleep I got up and binged on food that didn't fill me up anyway.

By the time I was done I was feeling depressed because the diet was off course and I was about ready to masturbate. Since I can't do porn I tried to remember what it was like to be loved by a woman twenty years ago, but my memory is fading. Next thing I knew I woke up this morning.

This post is dedicated to you, Markz.

Markz and mzl,

You both are great guys, and I appreciate your posts.

Can we perhaps call a truce? I don't like to see a flame war breaking out here.

Thanks!

Pidaini, I am not even reading your post, because you already showed me that you don't value my views

Shutting down Pidaini is like grabbing the mike away from ~~CNN~~ the.guard

mzl keeps bringing it / stoking negative fires on the forum

That's what happened yesterday and happens again and again

It's his call to whether he's interested in bidding by your request

LK I know you personally and you are a sweet guy but I wish you good luck on that front

You provoked me by telling me that I write too much.

I think that intimidating people who post on the forum for writing too much cannot be a good thing.

I've known for a long time that you are one of the forces of evil, but I haven't said anything because you said you have a mental illness. But when your mental illness starts affecting recovering people negatively it's not cute any more.

Plus you don't even have the courage to articulate your ideas clearly and openly, because twice you provoked me and then ran for the hills.

And you butted into my conversations with other people. You are a lot like a vandal, maybe you just want to be noticed, like those little kids that never stop making noise. You butt in and run off.
