

Daven for me ill daven for you !!
Posted by ydid - 14 Jan 2019 20:04

I have a great idea : Davining \ praying for success in this challenge is a fundamental thing.

We are all in this together. Nobody knows our struggles better then a GYE member.

Lets Share Our names and mothers name to davin for each others success.

Its also a way to REACH OUT to other. part of the recovery.

[If willing to stay anonymous you can post the GYE username - hashem knows..]

Names can be posted on this thread.

!!!!?? ?????? ??? ?????? ??? ????? ??????

Please remember that this is a public forum and can be accessed by anyone in the world. Anonymity is more than just a suggestion.

Please do not post any PII (Personal Identifying Information) on a public forum, especially one like this where you can be blackmailed by it.

Using just real first names is generally fine, unless you have a very unique name. Mother's names, date of birth, etc... should be avoided.

Thanks

i second lionking's words and will add to emphasize the point that i know of someone from this site who received a blackmail threat due to making a phone contact before ensuring that the person was safe. do not share numbers and start shmoozing comfortably with just anyone. it could be that i initially stumbled upon those that were bh safe, but since then i usually check with a trusted gye member to affirm that a particular username is ok. ya cant go nuts over this but the internet is def. not a happy go lucky playground, to put it mildly.
