Press Release: Guard Wins Nobel Peace Prize!

(Shamayim News) “Guardureyes,” affectionately known as “Guard,” administrator of the Guard Your Eyes website (www.guardyoureyes.org), is the winner of the 2009 Nobel Peace Prize! For the first time in many years, the prize is going to someone who is truly deserving. With the remarkable Chizuk he gives GYE members 24/6, Guard has helped provide Menuchas HaNefesh to more people than can be counted. Along with the prize is a well-deserved cash award of not less than $1,000 – the forum members’ way of saying “Guard, there is no way we can pay you back for all that you’ve done for us, but please allow us to return just a bit of the Chizuk!”

Mazal Tov, and a Freilichen Chanukah to the Heiliger Guard and his devoted Rebbetzin!

he's a little slow...give him some time he'll figure it out...

I explained it to him, and he's very appreciative.

Mazal Stove Reb Guard, and Rebbetzin Guardina.

This is an Olam Hapech, which is why the Chanukah Gift wasn't as large as you deserve.

Wait - if this is an Olam Hapech, does that mean that when I get to Shomayim, I'll be barrel-chested?

A freilechen chanukah!!

Steve.

Final call: If you did not participate in the Chanukah gift to our beloved Guard, and would like to do so, please send me a PM ASAP. My apologies to those who were not previously contacted, but, in order to keep this a surprise, we were unable to post about it on the forum. We did our best to privately contact everyone who we thought would be interested, but we undoubtedly left a number of people out (again, my apologies for the oversight). If you'd like to show your Hakaras HaTov, please contact me before Shabbos.

Sorry to disappoint you but the very nature of the noble peace prize is that it only goes to non deserving recipients!!!! There must be some mistake.

At least in recent years. But we specifically acknowledged the anomaly.

Yosef, this is just as bad as starting a new thread.

You're making the whole SMF spin on its head!
