

DOWN WITH FACE BOOK

Posted by bardichev - 14 Dec 2009 18:16

HOLY FRIENDS

YES IT IS CHANUKKA

OK WE ARE NOT EXACTLY THE MACCABEIM OF OLD

BUT HOW CAN WE WAGE A WAR OF

FEW AGAINST MANY

PURE AGAINST UNPURE

CAN WE ??

YES WE CAN!!!!

DELETE YOUR FACE BOOK ACCOUNT

CONVINCE YOUR "REAL" NON VIRTUAL FRIENDS TO DO THE SAME!!

HERE ARE SOME THINGS I AND OTHERS WROTE TO THE HEILIGER GUARD (NOBEL PRIZE WINNER)

please read my rant about face book

i want to post it but i need your hechsher

ok

LL you gave me a thought for food or farkert

here is bards very humble opinion facebook IS (yup in caps) is again is PISCHO SHEL GEHENNOM!!!

yup I said it

why so strict brads?

ok this needs a thread of it's own but here goes facebook is worse than just lusting on the net

it is far more dangerous !!

anyone who has an account will go to LICHTIGE GAN EDEN IF THEY TAKE IT DOWN

the whole thing is one shtikk chotey umachtey there are no inhibitions of any tznius are gidreay arayus!!

That's Gevaldigggg. Sure you can post it.

Poshut yid once wrote:

the yetzer tried to get me to go onto Facebook and look at some of the pictures over there with the rationalization that it is not pornography. I actually listened and went but I shut it down before I could really focus on it. I know this is his way of getting me to do something seemingly innocent which will lead me down a horrible path.

After a stumble with Facebook, "Momo" posted on the forum:

I need to learn from my fall, and this past fall has taught me that I have to cancel my Facebook account. It's really a waste of time anyway. The only reason I've been keeping the account is to see what's new in my friend's lives, see new photos of their kids, and have all of their email addresses in one spot. So I'll be "out of the loop". I'll miss someone's birthday. I'll miss a cute photo of a kid smiling. It's NOT worth it if it's going to trigger me to fall. I'm too sick to be on Facebook.

The next day "Momo" wrote:

Yesterday I said that I'd deactivate my Facebook account, and I did. Right before I did that, I said a prayer that with the z'chut of this action, HaShem should help everyone who's on this forum. Then, while I was doing the deactivation, the Y"H started voicing his objections "come on...". I countered by singing (in my head) a niggun really loudly. I felt very proud of myself after I did it, until I received a notice from Facebook that I can always activate my account again simply by signing in.

After searching the net, I found that you CAN request to have your account permanently deleted, and I did this too.

One great Ba'al Teshuvah - who has been clean now for well over a year, wrote us as follows:

The Yetzer Hara in his slimy and cunning ways, convinces so many people that Facebook is so innocent! Believe me, it is one of the worst places on the web, probably because it seems so innocent!

I personally have transgressed some of the worst Aveiros, thanks to Facebook! May Hashem have mercy on me and forgive me. May Hashem have mercy on everyone out there with a Facebook account, and give them the strength to get rid of it forever.

Same goes for mySpace and all "social" sites. The Torah forbids social mingling of the sexes. This applies 10000000% to mingling on Facebook too, and perhaps applies even more due to the anonymity involved that allows people to sink lower and lower, rachmana li'tzlan.

Please keep harping on this, until people get the message.

Another guy wrote:

Good for you Momo! I am also happy to let you know that I gave up my Facebook a few weeks ago. It's good to see I am not alone here. I became addicted to it, checking friends' profiles and pictures.

Now when I'm home with time to spare, I'm more likely to pick up a sefer and learn instead of wasting time on the computer on these social networking sites.

Also, I went through my iTunes and iPod and deleted a lot of my goyishe music, including lady singers. This is something of a financial loss, since this music cost money, but I am more than confident that 'loss' is far outweighed by the eternal spiritual gains this will bring me.

This forum is a wonderful opportunity for me to truly and finally feel good about myself. Facebook and the other so called social networks are breeding grounds for the disease.

btw, have a facebook account and never used it for anything bad...I guess it depends

Nobody is saying that if you have a facebook account, you are definitely being ovar on all 3 aveiros chamuros repeatedly every day. We are just saying that the amount of access that it gives people, especially young teenagers, to things which really hurt them, makes it better off not existing.

There is nothing INHERENTLY wrong with unfiltered internet access, and even though there are millions of people who use it every day without a problem, it makes things which we don't want anywhere near or around us - accessible with the touch of a button. That's why we use filters.

Likewise, facebook does not HAVE to be a bad thing, but since the chances of it being misued are abnormally great, that makes it something to be "filtered out".

A person is not given the opportunity to do an aveirah if he can't do teshuva on it. So imagine the koychis these guys have.

There's nothing inherently wrong with walking a tight-rope across the Niagra falls. But would you want to do that? Even better, would you want your child to do that?

At the Agudah Conventio internet expert Phil Rosenthal said over the following story

He was invited to speak in a certain community. Prior to his speech he was asked to meet the Local Rabbanim. He was given a heads up thae the Rabbis were lukewarm to the idea of him speaking.

So he did his homework.he accessed Facebook and put in names of random teens names place that city.He found regular teens writing the most vulgar things. He printed what seemed the "worst". At the meeting he blocked out the names.

He handed a copy to each Rav.This local girl was writing vile shmuts about herself and page after page about her father.

As all of the Rabbonim were oyying and ayying. Phil said "Gentlemen,one of you who are reading this,your daughter,wrote this about...YOU"!!!

this is a sad story but it sounds made up...for one, fb does not allow you to access other people's sites without their consent...

I heard Philip Rosenthal speak about this before. It's not that difficult. It's called "social engineering." Make a facebook account pretending to be someone the girl knows, friend her, she accepts, and voila, you've got all the information you want. I've done this kind of thing before (no, not in a bad way). You wouldn't believe how stupid most people are... well... you're Rage, so you probably would.
