

I don't get it

Posted by Taharat Yisrael - 31 Jul 2020 04:13

I've been struggling with Zerah levatala for years with very limited infrequent access to porn. Now I have very very strong taavos just a few days in- sometimes with no real triggers. I always try to occupy myself or to distract myself. I know the ????. Of ???????? ?????? ??????. I have a very strong filter and I still want to masturbate ???. I don't really know what to do so I can work up to two weeks even.

You have a great attitude about getting up and moving on. With that mehalech you will iyh break free. It is also advisable that you continue separating pornography and masturbation. Even if you struggle a bit more with masturbation but are keeping your eyes and mind clean, it is an awesome accomplishment. Pornography is terribly destructive - it totally corrupts our thinking about women, with many serious side effects.....

@Taharat Yisrael

Try HALT

If you feel any of these feelings, or any combination of them, then stop immediately and gather your thoughts.

They put you at risk of falling.

Hunger

Anger (resentment/jealousy)

Lonely

Tired

I think I've seen from the zohar that somehow it's hotzaa because it's bringing the zera from ones reshus hayachid to the reshus harabim...

but I doubt it's lhalacha, one won't get skila for it etc...

anyway, Hatzlocha!!

It's anything that causes you stress. it varies between different people but generally those four top the list for most people.

About chilul Shabbos, no, its not chillul shabbos. Al pi sod maybe, but it's a lot of other things al pi sod too. Don't get too hung up about it, try to focus on what is real to you and what matters in your day to day life.

Hatzhlachah!

Remind yourself of the reasons you want to be clean, how it feels to be clean and how it feels 10 seconds after a fall. Hang in there!

This is very normal. The urges come and go. The key is to remove yourself from that situation, such as taking a walk, distracting yourself, etc. The urge will pass. Keep on posting!

Hey guys! I fell over Shabbat on day 7 but on a positive note the fall was much more brief this time. As last week I fell again twice consecutively that same night. I'm on day 3 now and going strong. BH keeping busy as much as I can, especially with the army(couldn't do anything for a little while but now I'm coming back). Also going to be renting an apartment with a friend, staying productive. Wish me luck guys!
