OK, this is to clear up once and for all, the idea that I keep on seeing on the posts from the singles, that they only have a desire for certain things because they don't have any outlet otherwise.

To quote Rabbi Twerski:

It is important to know that the addiction is under control before considering marriage. Marriage is not a hospital and does not cure addiction, and continuation of the addiction is likely to ruin a marriage.

I've posted so many times on this issue that I'm done on it. I'm just going to say that I think and feel that marriage does not help. If someone wants to understand my view better he can pm or email/gchat.

i dont believe that the poll is offering the right options. this is not a yes or no answer.

By me at least marriage made my problem DIFFERENT. things were more clear, yet more difficult. i had more ammunition in my armory but i was fighting a different war.
