

Starting Again...

Posted by Lou - 21 Dec 2020 22:15

Hi, I have posted in other threads but just wanted to start this new one to get this of my chest. I guess i am venting more than anything else. To make a long story short, I have been a struggler for years with these issues. This includes watching and also chatting with online relationships etc. BH over the past few years due a variety of reasons things have ~~greatly~~ improved in this area. Don't get me wrong. It wasn't fixed but the issues were less serious (trying to avoid triggering {embarrassing} details. As it still was certainly an issue eventually I recently joined GYE and working on the 90 days etc. I have started and failed more than once but I understand that is part of the process. What is really getting to me and is actually confusing to me is that my most recent fall was to a level worse than I have had in a few years! In other words, when I was working on the issues less officially i was staying away from that level. Now that I am working on really cleaning up my act I have stooped back to my really low levels Why?? It definitely was some Hashgacha Pratis in this as I was faced with a nisayon I have avoided in the past. Is Hashem telling me that now that I am stronger I should be able to deal with nisayon?? Well, I didn't...

Any feedback is welcome!

Looking back with a bit more of a clear vision I realize I was totally out of my mind! Those people literally have no life. No real happiness. I had it all! BH I still do have it all! and what did I do? I sneaked into a corner to join their world! Truly a Ruach Shtus! Hashem have Rachmanus and save us all from such shtusim. literally Shtusim.

Well said

You certainly can!

I believe I have been keeping this thread up to date with how I am doing but possibly I haven't been clear enough. BH really doing great with the sur mara aspect. I am still breathing so there are still nisyonos, but nothing extreme. It is just not what I do anymore. However, I am still on guard as I realize it doesn't take anything extreme to have a fall. It can happen in a matter of minutes, so not getting over confident here. My main issue/struggle now is the Asei tov. Meaning to replace all the negative behaviors sufficiently with positive behaviors to help make sure I don't just slip back. If the void is still there, then possibly once my initial drive wears off the void will be filled by the garbage. So, working on that aspect and not doing so great honestly. But, I have been advised by some to lay off a bit and take one step at a time. Enjoy the sur mara for now.

Thanks

Very good! Bh

I would start saying ideas of like working out etc, but I'm sure you know about that and are following your own tailored eitzah.

Im glad you're doing well, you are a very integral part of my growth, and I'm sure many here would say the same.

Keep shteiging, and please let us know if there's any way we can be of assistance.

As I approach 60 days BeH, I would like to address another aspect in my struggle. I enjoy listening to a certain radio station. It is talk radio that is loosely based on news stories but lots of entertainment as well. There are innuendos that aren't always clean etc Anyone in the New Jersey area probably knows what station I'm referring to. (Yup, I spilled the beans, now you know who I am, Lou in New Jersey). It certainly is more of a hinderance than a help on a path to being more tahor. I have thought about taking on not listening to it in the past, but always concluded it didn't make any sense to stop that and still do the real garbage (possibly not really a good cheshbon, by the way). My wife actually took on not to listen to it years ago. Sooo, I would like to be mekabel bli neder not to listen to it for the first ten minutes that I get into my car. If it is a short trip then I just won't listen. Since I am only doing this for ten minutes I am including even listening to the traffic and weather.

Thank you all for helping me get to this point that I can actually work on this!

Thank you Hashem

Recently I came across a Q&A from Rav Avigdor Miller Z"L on Talk Radio and TV

Q:

Please explain why it is forbidden to go to the movies, to the theaters, to listen to talk-radio and to read secular books.

A:

Why is it wrong for a man to take poison, that's the question. If a man wants to kill himself whose business is it? The answer is, it's Hashem's business. Hashem says, "I gave you a body, so you have no right to destroy it. It's not your body. It's mine. And I gave you a mind, which is even more important than your body, and you have no right to destroy it." So if you go to places that put garbage into your mind and put poison into your mind, that's called destroying your mind.

"Mi'kol mishmor, ni'tzor li'bechah" (Mishlei 4-23) – More than anything that you guard, you have to guard your mind. That's Hakodosh Boruch Hu's command. There is nothing in your possession that is more valuable than your mind and your thoughts. Therefore when a person goes to these places or if he has a TV – having a TV is like taking a pipe from the sewers and emptying it directly into your dining room. You turn it on and a gush, a flow, a torrent of smelly garbage, filthy water comes pouring into your dining room, on the rugs. And that’s nothing yet. It comes into your head – that’s the real problem! So this person is asking a question – why are these things forbidden? Because it’s forbidden for a man to destroy himself.

Greetings,

Two things happened today to remind me that I am not immune to the Yetzer hara. I didn't think I was immune but still good to get the reminder.

Today,I had to sit with a public school kid for part of his virtual school time(Don't ask, my job takes me to strange situations sometimes!). The teacher was showing the kids a movie for at least half the class time. It was probably officially a clean movie,but just sitting there brought back the memories of being entertained and enthralled in a movie and all that goes along with it. My movie watching was rarely clean,because I don't really watch movies in the open. If I watched a movie it was part of acting out.I attempted to keep myself as occupied as possible with other things while it was on...

The second thing is that I am feeling pretty rotten Shalom Bayis wise. Nothing major,but one of those situations where I messed up and suffering the consequences of saying and doing the wrong thing at the wrong time.

BH at this point I would not actually do any sort of negative behaviors of the lusting variety as that is just not what I do anymore. However,the feelings I had from the wicked combination are enough to remind me that I can fall so easily from this high place I am at now.

Humbling and enlightening

Lou

I just had what could possibly be called a slip.I just want to post it here to clarify for myself that it was not the right thing to do. There was an inappropriate news story I had heard about... I decided to search for more details online. I probably spent about 10 minutes on this.

Was it a fall? Not at all! BH. But doesn't fit with who I am and the person I want to be.

If my Rebbe was sitting with me I would not have checked out that story....

Shevisi Hashem linegdi Tamid! Easy to say...challenging to fulfill

BH, today I have reached a milestone. I have 90 cumulative clean days! That doesn't mean in my entire life I only have had 90 clean days...However, since I made the amazing move to join GYE a few months ago, I have had 90 clean days. BH

BeH looking forward to having 90 days in a row very soon!

Hatzlocha to all!

Lou
