Hi!

Relax, don't be nervous.

This struggle isn't supposed to make a person nervous, of course it's the wrong activities to be doing, but Hashem gave us this nisayon, and even the greatest of great had/has it.

Don't think you will never get away, if you work on it with a real desire to be clean, you will iyh get away from it. And iyh you'll have a wonderful and healthy marriage!

Your mistakes you made in life will only haunt you if you don't take care of them now. You are still young (I'm assuming) and many only start working on it till later in life, you have a head start.

Just don't give up on trying to overcome this.

We are all here for you.

YCT,

You can do it.

We are all rooting for you.

May I suggest you get a good filter on your computer if you have one. I always recommend techloq.

As for your phone. These days everyone "neeeeds" a smartphone. I once had a big argument with my shver if bochurim should have smartphones, he said yes and I said no.

YCT, if you are not in business and just in yeshiva, I would highly recommend you to get a non smartphone. It will mamash save your life. You will feel like a free man.

And about married. Girls are more impressed if you come to date with a flip phone then with the newest iPhone. It looks cool, but the girls know the truth.

Stay on and dont disappear in us.

We are all here for you.

Welcome and enjoy the ride.

I do have a smartphone but it's well filtered. My biggest struggle is on my computer I found some big holes in the filter and today I went onto social media just to check something clean. But something on the side got my attention and b4 I knew it was watching some really bad stuff . I made a Kabbalah never to go on this social media site without a shomer so I hope it helps for the future

Welcome yct!

I have struggled with this for many years and have only recently gotten my act together by coming here.

As many people have mentioned, an essential part of moving forward and change is the reason behind our change (ie. Why should I change?). When the going gets tough and the Yetzer Harah pulls out his machine gun, we need to be well grounded, know where we are headed and have the desire to do what we need to do.

Another important part of this journey, is having someone to talk about this. Addictions like this are like mold, they thrive in darkness. Both a mentor and a friend/partner can help greatly for this.

For me, the mentors have been a psychologist and a veteran GYE member and I have made some friends on GYE. I think the biggest reason for these two, besides for the fact that secrecy and being hidden are what fuels addiction often, is that, for me, I had not lived as an adult without pornography or masturbation so how on earth should I be expected to know how to change and live a normal life?

Good to hear!

Would you mind sharing that method; it may be beneficial for many of us, especially since your rebbi said that it worked for many people...

on the other hand it may not be a good idea to share yet since alot of times people with good intentions try to deflate ideas which could work, and yct would lose his enthusiasm...
