

Looking for a good SA group

Hi everyone,

I've come to the point where I realized that I can't get better alone, so I'm looking for a good Sexaholics Anonymous group.

It doesn't have to be a frum group, and it doesn't need to be in-person. I'm open to whatever.

I just feel like I need more structure and a community of brothers to help me through this, so any and all recommendations are appreciated.

Thank you!
