hiatus

not that anyone cares, and you shouldn't, but for various reasons - some bad, some good, in a few days i will be taking a leave of absence for some time - not sure on exact duration. there will be some inappropriate behavior in the next week or so, and there needs to be some taking stock for the future - some of it has begun already. there is a chance i can board a boat as a stowaway heading towards the mainland in a week or two, and then i will have no contact whatsoever to the outside world. some private charters are looking for an extra pair of hands, so that may be an option as well.

take care and thank you

Good luck. You will be missed.

(Especially because your comments comprise 10% of Nauru's exports and are critical to the country's failing economy)

Not sure if this is related to Trouble's escapades, but nauru was chosen as today's "mystery country" in the globle-game (for all of you sex addict - turned wordle and associated daily challenge game addicts)

Warning: Spoiler!
