

Projects for Bein Hazmanim

Posted by retrych - 08 Aug 2022 16:00

---

In Yeshiva or not, it's a tough time, so maybe we can suggest/exchange/share ways to keep busy. Whether it's a topic you always wanted look into (but would really rather someone do it for you), a remote volunteer opportunity,, something you've always wanted/been meaning to do but would like help, or just something you think other people might like doing,

One thing that worked for me in the past is to ask a shul or organization if there is something you can do to help them, BEFORE you can be tempted to spend your time elsewhere.

I actually have a writing/writing over and a small audio editing project I had been asked to do. If anyone needs something to do and would be interested in either of these things, you can email torayjar@gmail.com

=====
=====

Re: Projects for Bein Hazmanim

Posted by GGGGG - 09 Aug 2022 03:04

---

Your idea of asking a shul or organization for help is on-point. In my shul there is lots of opportunity for leining and leading davening.

=====
=====