How about a healthy hug from a GYE chaver who understands exactly what you are experiencing?

Im really down about life right now. I just did some more sexualized browsing. I'm now done. I'm still at 75 but it was close. having a hard time with my feelings right now. craving this roller-coaster to just end already. I'm getting dizzy on this coaster. I'm throwing up. I'm trying to cheep up the other riders on this coaster but I'm barely happy riding myself. This coaster goes on and on and on. Reminds me of the song from the band "moshav" called "Will it never stop oooohhh will it ever end" ending off with a smile. good night my dears!

Thank god im feeling a lot better today. i think its important for me to share that when i say im attracted to wierd things, that its just a part of me stuck inside me from many years ago. Its not who i am today, its not who i identify as. Its a part of me that im going to love, not be judgmental to and accept. Yet at the same time its just a small part of me and not me. I'm just a human

I don't know what feeling, I just know im not happy. My mind keeps going back to fantasizing. Its like i don't have anything else to think about. I've been spending a few weeks drowning myself in food and lust, each one competing for the chance to take over in the pleasure hunt. It doesnt work. Im just getting fatter from the food and drained from the ejaculations. No pursuit of lust can ever really bring happiness or distraction. I really need to work on self-control but I cant be bothered. All I want to do now is go and masturbate again or fantasize or at least stuff myself with more food that I can't really afford to buy so much of. I hope to speak to the mashgiach tommorrow but I dont know how much I will tell him nor how much he can really help me. Its so frustrating that I have no self-control. I wish I could just get a grip on life for a bit.....

@human being...I gotta say you have the most beautiful neshama. Your warmth and caring nature is so obvious to us all. I have been the recipient of many virtual hugs from you and they are most appreciated. And I know from what you have written how much pain you have experienced in your life and you still reach out with such an open heart to others who are also hurting and fighting. Thank you for everything you add to GYE and, by extension, my struggle to stay clean. As a human being, you are truly stellar. Hugs back to you.
